

Geography

The following maps are usually used for the Five Themes of Geography. These same categories can be used to create bulletin board displays of the geography of any area students are studying.

Place

Use a Bubble Map to describe the characteristics of a place. A Circle Map can also be used to collect valuable information about a place's characteristics.

